

CCR Client Update - February 10, 2022

On Tuesday, February 8, the Government of Alberta announced a three step plan to ease provincial public health restrictions. The University of Alberta has assessed the province's announcement and its impact on our diverse community and campus activities. Thank you for your patience as we reviewed the available information.

Effective immediately:

- Visitors will no longer require proof of vaccination/QR codes for entry into University of Alberta sport and recreation facilities.
- Students, Staff and Faculty members will continue to provide their CampusReady pass at checkpoints until further notice.
- All users and spectators must screen for COVID-19 symptoms. If you do have any symptoms, please stay home until you are symptom free.
- Spectator access will be limited to 1 spectator per participant at this time, total occupancy will be limited to 50% of fire code for all events (for areas with greater than 500 person capacity).
- University of Alberta Golden Bears and Pandas events will welcome a limited number of spectators. Please visit the Golden Bears and Pandas website for information related to these events.
- Food and beverage may be consumed in our facilities while seated.

Face coverings must be worn at all times in indoor facilities except while engaged in high intensity physical activity.

Zero Tolerance Policy

We thank the thousands of visitors who have utilized our facilities and services and treated our frontline staff with respect and courtesy! We do recognize this is a stressful time for all clients; however, we will not accept abusive or aggressive behavior and language towards our staff. We seek to provide a safe environment for all in our community, and we will take steps (up to and including permanent removal) to curb behavior and language that presents a threatening environment.
